WANTED—MORE PUSH

Monett citizens are inclined to show too much apathy when a public project comes up. We are too prone to sit back and let someone else shoulder the load, while we extend our energies in friendly criticism, or the other kind.

Everyone wants the community building. Everyone sees the imperative need. But everyone is not helping. Don't wait for the solicitors to call on you. It means as much to you as to anyone else. Take as many shares as you are able and then help get more shares.

Push the thing through this week, then the stockholders will meet, make their plans, select a site and get to work. We will enjoy it much more if it is pushed through with enthusiasm by everyone, than if it drags out through the summer.

"Peep" is what we need and we need it now.

MONETT'S DEVELOPMENT
DEMANDS NEW VENTURE

The Rev. Father McNamee, pastor of the St. Lawrence Catholic church, speaks his sentiment regarding the proposed new community building as follows:

The proposed community building demands interested consideration from the citizens of Monett. No man can supply his needs by ignoring them and remonstrate about needs may be favorable comment rather than adverse criticism. A dead man needs nothing, but the healthy youth hunger for mind and body.

A dead town has more accommodation than it needs, but Monett is crying for more and more. All of us men felt proud of our first pair of pants, but imagine us trying to squeeze into them again on the day of our first vote.

Monett's development demands occasional change of vestment and must not disdain particular garments because a whole suit seems undesirable but unattainable.

Monett can supply its needs but must not remain inactive because undecided as to which is most urgent. The community building is intended to supply needs which make frequent and urgent calls.

YOUNG MATRONS CLUB

The Young Matrons Club was entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Byron Vaughan at her home on Second street. The home was beautifully decorated with red cluster roses. A guessing contest was one of the amusements for the evening and the prize, a hand painted plate, was won by Mrs. B. A. Jones. A one-plate lunch was served to the following club members: Mrs. Ralph Saxe, Mrs. B. A. Jones, Mrs. Ollie Davis, Mrs. Happy Wilhelm, Mrs. Kenneth Guinney, Mrs. Sidney James, Mrs. Johnny White, Mrs. Oscar Blackshear. Guests of the club were Misses Jessie Ferguson, Irene Newberry and Fern Viles.
